Family Groove Forecast

Author: Christopher Meza

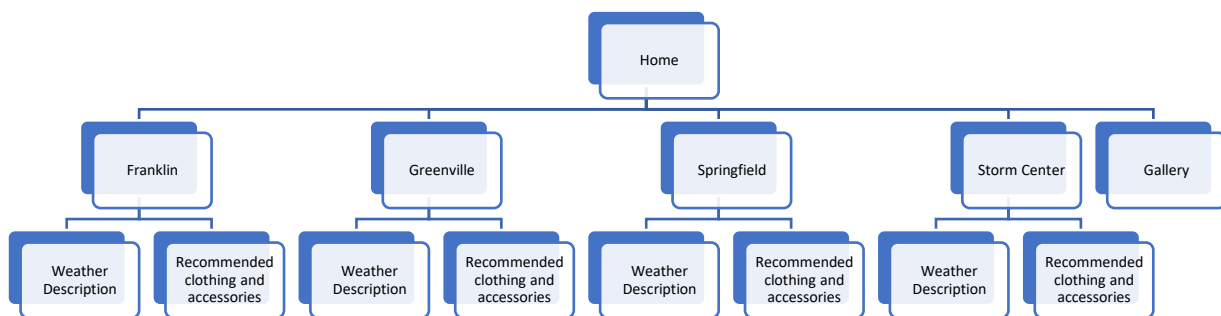

Site Purpose:

The purpose of this sit is to inform parents on how the weather will be within the following week. Along with this, this website will make it possible for parents to have the necessary amount of time to prepare themselves and their loved ones, their children and outdoor pets, with the clothing and accessories which will suit them best depending on the forecast. Even more, parents and guardians will also be capable of preparing their children or children under care for school, out door activities, and much more!

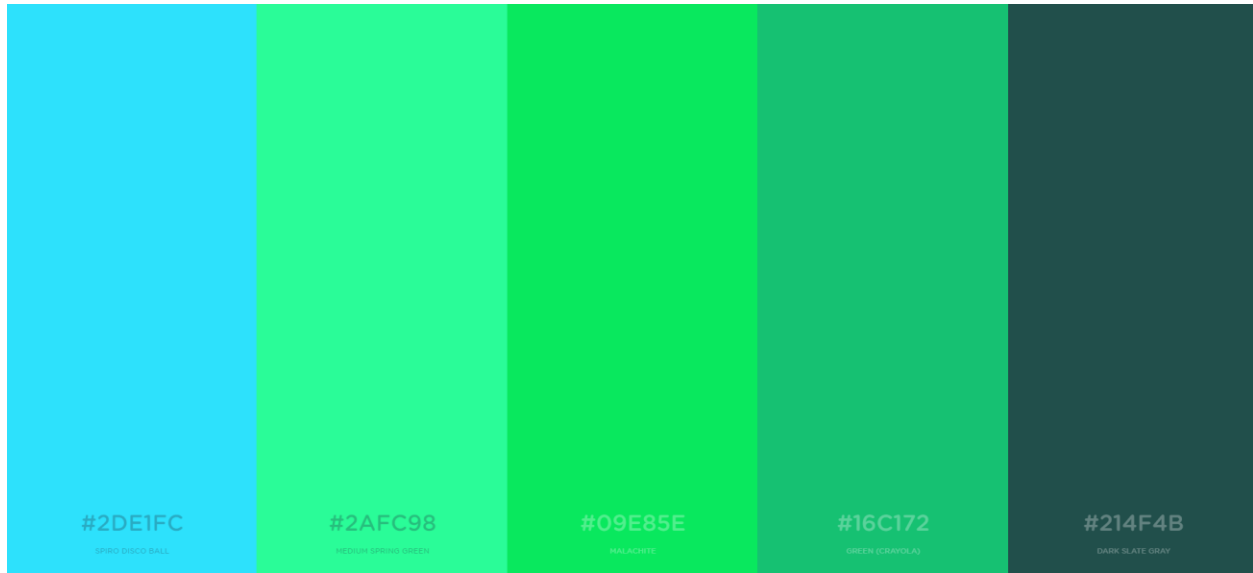

Target Audience:

Even though, the site's purpose makes reference towards parents and guardians being the target audience, the use of this website is inclined towards any individual who works with children.
